

We bring you this week's biggest stories in one quick read.
Stay informed. Support local journalism!

Ennerdale learner wins International Science medal in China

Naftal Khoza, a Grade 10 learner from Ennerdale Secondary School has been awarded a Silver medal at the Beijing Youth Science Creation Competition (BYSCC) held in China from 25 to 29 March 2026. Khoza was part of a South African team selected to compete internationally following their performance at the Eskom Expo for Young Scientists International Science Fair held in October 2025.

Read more...

www.globepost.co.za

As Government announces latest fuel adjustment, Lenasia South dealers do their best to meet demand

As of Wednesday, 1 April, South Africans are bracing for a sharp increase in fuel prices after the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy announced significant hikes for April. The adjustment is expected to place additional strain on motorists and households already grappling with rising living costs.

Read more...

SASSA grant increase kicks in this April

The South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) has announced the payment schedule for social grants in April, alongside confirmed increases to grant amounts following the national budget.

Read more...

Heavy Easter traffic expected as over 1 million ZCC Pilgrims travel to Moria, east of Polokwane

Traffic congestion is expected to intensify along the R71 route in Limpopo as millions of Zion Christian Church (ZCC) and St Engenas ZCC members make their way to Moria, Polokwane for annual Easter pilgrimages.

Read more...

www.globepost.co.za

Ennerdale community furious over dirty tap water

On 1 April, residents of Ennerdale voiced their frustration on community WhatsApp groups after days of inconsistent water supply now worsened by dirty, undrinkable water flowing from their taps. Community members say the situation has become unbearable, with frequent disruptions affecting daily life.

Read more...

