

GLOBE POST

WEEKLY SNAPSHOT

Volume 1. Issue 13

AIP, Grounded Media,
Globe Post & ASISA team

YES! IT WAS QUITE A PARTY!

We proudly hosted a Tea, Talks & Money Matters session with the Association for Savings & Investment South Africa (ASISA)

29 July 2026, Lenasia South, Civic Centre

Watch our TikTok video recap 📺, created by
our UJ Intern,
Andile
Nkosi

CLICK HERE

A successful morning of financial empowerment conversations, dance and good food

ASISA Facilitator, Linda Kobua

Building financially informed communities

Practical money tips for everyday life

Saving today for a secure tomorrow

Hosted by Xenor Projects/Globe Post in collaboration with ASISA and Association of Independent Publishers (AIP)

Bangra Bash Got Lit!

ASISA CEO, Kaizer Moyane

Golden years, smarter finances

- Lenasia South Senior citizens gathered for an engaging financial literacy workshop
- Linda Kobua from ASISA led an insightful session on smart money management
- Topics included saving, insurance, investments and budgeting
- ASISA CEO, Kaizer Moyane, showed support for grassroots financial education

Engaged guests

Pics by Globe Post Team

Our gratitude to Lenasia South Senior Citizens Club Chairperson, Mogie Naidoo

Key Highlights

- Participants explored practical money management and differences between needs and wants
- Practical advice on short- and long-term insurance for simplified financial planning
- Interactive activities, competitions and prize giveaways kept everyone engaged
- The workshop reminded attendees that informed financial decisions create long-term financial security

Closing remarks by GLOBE POST's Publisher & Editor-in-Chief, Shirley Govender

This event directly spoke to my mission as a hyper-local publisher - to inform, educate, listen and amplify grassroot voices while also guiding readers through the everyday challenges of life.

Informed communities are essential for civic health and a stronger democracy. The feedback from attendees has been very positive with high engagement during the session which shows impact and relevance.

On the day, we celebrated the senior citizens. It was an impactful event that truly engaged the marginalised community of Lenasia South.

A huge thank you to ASISA and the AIP for this partnership. Xenor looks forward to hosting other grassroot events with you.

To our sponsors, Lotus School of Excellence, Fantasia Trading, Payne's Hair & Beauty and Layer Pop 3D Printing Specialist, our profound gratitude to you all.

