New head for BACF

Omar Khan, owner of Khan's Butchery, was elected on 6 July to steer the Business Against Crime Forum (BACF) into a new chapter. This structure is a sub committee of the Lenasia South CPF. "My vision is to build a stronger relationship with SAPS for the policing of our business zones across the precinct. It is critical that we build the local economy through creating safer business areas." He added: "I invite all commercial players to participate in this vision. A meeting will be held soon. Watch for date and time"

NELSON MANDELA DAY

Join the Joburg Crisis Alliance this Mandela Day for 67 minutes of community service at Maranata Hall in Finetown. Volunteers will help renovate and paint the hall's toilets on Saturday, 18 July, from 9am to 10am
