

GLOBE POST WEEKLY SNAPSHOT

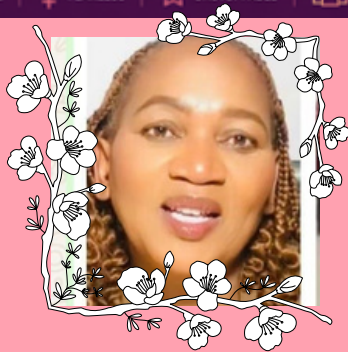

Volume 1. Issue 16

Your community. Your stories. Your weekly brief.

Cassandra Manickum
Property Manager

"Have the audacity to be yourself. Do not compete with anyone for anything. Your authenticity lies within you. There is no need to compare your journey, achievements, appearance, or success with another woman's. You are uniquely you, and that is your greatest strength. Celebrate who you are..."

Pastor Nomsa Radebe-Tshabalala.
Umusa Community Development Projects

"What motivates me is love for humanity, love for my community, and love for my country. This is rooted in my personal relationship with God almighty, and that is what brings fulfillment to what I do."

Ngoqi Yolanda
Social Worker at Family Life Centre (FAMSA).

"What motivates me is knowing that my work can change the trajectory of someone's life. I am motivated by the opportunity to give people hope when they feel hopeless, to advocate for those whose voices are not being heard."

Bibi Aysha Shariff
Responsible Pharmacist at Southside Pharmacy.

"My daughter, my family, my staff, and my community motivate me. I want my daughter to grow up knowing that women can lead with both strength and kindness. Seeing Southside Pharmacy make a difference in people's lives gives meaning to every difficult day."

Sharon Raman
Chairperson - Love Without Reason

"Seeing lives changed. Seeing dignity restored. Seeing hope for a brighter future. That's what keeps me going on the hard days. If I can help one woman find hope, regain her smile, and realize she can make a difference — then I know I'm fulfilling my purpose."

Yash Naidoo (Secretary)
Annu Govindasami (Leader)
Dimakatso Chauke (Treasure)
Women of Esther

"Never underestimate what God can do through an ordinary woman who is willing to say 'yes.' Do not compare your journey to someone else's. Walk confidently in your purpose, remain teachable, and remember that your story can become someone else's encouragement..."

Muneerah Williams
Hope of the Hopeless

"What motivates me is seeing lives touched and communities strengthened. Every smile, every meal and every person we help reminds me why I must continue."

Florence Mtweli
Founder of Siyaphambili project

"You can do it in life, it is never too late don't let your background define your tomorrow, life is like football anything can happen so rise and shine mbokodo."

Elder Brenda Johnson

COJ FBO Organiser/ Faith-Based Organisations & NPO, Heavensway Director

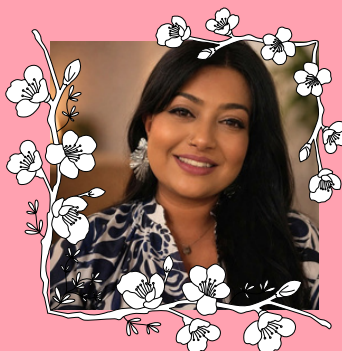

"She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come." – Proverbs 31:25
Keep going sister. What you do for others is immortal. – George Eliot "

Niri Bhudram Justine

AME, Justine and Tupperware sales consultant

"My motivation to all women young and old is when times are bad, don't give up hope, persevere, be strong and let God's plan work. Go out and do things that make you happy and motivate you."

Sumaya Naidoo

HR Director

"Educate yourself, keep learning and build your independence. Education gives women choices and confidence. Know your worth, trust your abilities and never be afraid to be ambitious. Dedication, consistency, discipline and determination, together with a commitment to excellence, will take you far. When you succeed, bring another woman with you."

Alice Rangato

Quality Assurance Coordinator

Philile Sibisi

Eunice Thembekile Ntshakala

Busisiwe Khumalo

Lisbeth Maduwa

Mary Payne

Owner of Payne's Hair & Beauty.

"Women should know their worth. whatever you want in life is not going to come easy because life has its ups and downs, quitting is not an option and conquer whatever that comes your way. If you believe in yourself you can move mountains that's my way of thinking."

Rudelle Wendy Moodley

General Secretary of Daxina Striders Athletic Club

"Thrive beyond the standard that someone else has set for you. And as you climb the ladder, don't forget the women beside you. Celebrate other women's achievements. Encourage them. Lift them up."

Zahira Mathir

Pink Princess Projects

"Women are strong. No matter what our situation is, we always come out on top. So my message to women is: Keep going. And if you need help, ask. There are always two answers — a yes and a no."

Your story matters. Your voice matters.

Help us keep community journalism alive — Share your story, tip us off, or partner with us to drive real change where it matters most.

📞 WhatsApp us | 🌐 Visit our platforms | 📧 Work with us

THANK YOU

♡ to all the incredible women ♡

WHO SHARED THEIR BEAUTIFUL PICS AND MESSAGES

During this Women's Month, you opened your hearts, shared your stories and allowed us to celebrate you.
Thank you for trusting Globe Post.

Every photo tells a story. Every message inspires. Together, they remind us of the strength, resilience, beauty and determination of the women in our community.

CELEBRATING
STRENGTH
BEAUTY &
RESILIENCE

To all our readers — thank you for celebrating Women's Month with us. Your support helps us continue telling local stories, recognising remarkable people and building a community we're proud of.

INSPIRED BY WOMEN
DRIVEN BY CHANGE

Your very own community newspaper since 1992

SUPPORT LOCAL JOURNALISM

ADVERTISE WITH US

Book Your Digital Advertising Today!!!!

📞 010 230 0038 | 📧 savannacitytimes1@gmail.com